“FAMILY, THE MEMORIES, GROW
MY HISTORY, MEANS SO MUCH TO ME”

— All I Feel Is, The Multi-Story Young Creatives

BOLD TENDENCIES

Following their award-winning production The Endz - which thrilled audiences and gained rave reviews at Bold Tendencies last summer - Routes is a new performance piece by The Multi-Story Orchestra Young Creatives.

Routes is a new performance piece directed by Abi Falase with music led by singer songwriters Frances Lobo and Abimaro Gunnell, violinist Blaize Henry, and Multi-Story Artistic Director Kate Whitley.

Featuring four original songs the performance blends narration and song in celebration of the personal journeys that bring us together.

Set in Peckham and inspired by the musicians' personal experiences, Routes is a story of legacy and the trails we leave as we walk through life.

About The Multi-Story Orchestra

We are a community of professional musicians and young people who create extraordinary performances with, and for, the people of Peckham. We perform in car parks and unexpected spaces. We bring powerful and meaningful music to life and believe that creating the best art means involving and valuing absolutely everybody. We are the resident orchestra at Bold Tendencies.
